

COURSE CORRECTION:

Avoiding the pitfalls that sabotage leaders' success

In this thought-provoking presentation, join Amber Waugaman as she reveals the hidden pitfalls that sabotage leaders' success. Through real-life examples and interactive discussions, you'll gain valuable insights into how leaders unintentionally veer off track, hindering their potential (and their team's potential) for greatness.

Amber's expertise will guide you through a journey of self-discovery, as you learn how certain practices may unknowingly set leaders up for failure. Drawing from her extensive experience, she'll equip you with practical techniques and a comprehensive roadmap to chart a course for leadership success. By the end of this engaging session, you'll be empowered to cultivate strong leadership capabilities for yourself and for leaders in your organization. Don't miss this opportunity to course correct in order to navigate the path toward becoming a highly effective leader. Attendees will be able to:

- ✓ Elevate their awareness with how leaders are inadvertently set up to fail
- ✓ Assess and evaluate themselves and others based on the three ways that leaders unintentionally throw themselves off course
- ✓ Design a strategic roadmap to chart a course for leadership effectiveness for themselves and for their organization

Amber is a highly accomplished ICF credentialed Certified Executive Coach and AMA Certified Professional in Management® with over 14 years of diverse experience across various industries. She helps organizations overcome high turnover, low productivity, and ineffective leadership by developing leaders. She spent a decade working in the financial industry in Manhattan and has been living in Vermont for the past 4.5 years. You can learn more about Amber here: <https://awcoach.co/about>.

Audience members walk away saying:

"This presentation provided actionable, practical takeaways that I can immediately apply in my leadership role."

"This presentation has inspired me to create a development plan for my leadership team."

AMBER WAUGAMAN

Executive Coach

Request Amber to speak for your group!

 amber@awcoach.co

 www.awcoach.co

 Amber Waugaman

 @ExecCoachAmber